

Salvation Prayer:

Heavenly Father, I come to you in the name of Your Son, Jesus. Thank You for sending Him to die for my sins, an incredible act of love performed just for me. I am sorry for sinning against You. I believe You are a forgiving God, as Your Word says, and that You forgive me of all of my sins. I believe You raised Jesus from the grave, overcoming death, and allowing me to accept Him and receive eternal life through Him. Jesus, please come and reside in my heart and be my Savior and Lord. Amen.

FAIRHAVEN HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1964

Our 55th Reunion

June 29, 2019

Class reunions are in a class by themselves. For me, our upcoming 55th High School reunion is no exception. There is the excitement of seeing people I haven't seen and the anticipated disappointment of remembering the life of those who have died and are no longer with us.

On the surface, the sweet and bitter nature of my class gathering is one of the true gauges that life on Earth is moving along very quickly, whether we approve it or not. None of us is big deal enough, even if we were voted as some class superlative, to get a pass from the inevitable fact that one day we will die and be physically absent from the next planned class gathering. That said, I have every intention to take advantage of this upcoming opportunity; to celebrate the past, present, and future with those of us who come together on June 29 as 1964 graduates of Fairhaven High School.

By the way, speaking of superlatives, I was voted Best School Spirited as a senior and take that honor seriously to this very writing.

Apparently, not a "kill joy" then and not one now, let me offer to my special friends, classmates, and others the hope the Bible offers as a choice we can make to ensure a Reunion with our Creator - no matter when we take our last breath. According to God's Word, there is an eternal choice we have regarding going to Heaven (The Sweet Reunion) or being separated from God by going to hell (The Bitter Reunion).

God offers a never-ending Family or Class Reunion with His Loving Good News. It's our will and choice to approve it or not. Please join with me and get right with the Superintendent of superintendents, Principal of principals, and The Class of all classmates.

Carpe Diem, my friends. Seize this day and recite the following prayer in earnest and God promises we'll meet again. In fact, and by God's way, Jesus Christ is The Superlative of superlatives, Senior of seniors, and by His divine nature, The Best School Spirited.
